PORTRAIT OF JESUS

This picture: "Behold I stand at the door and knock", Donated as a focal point for a Worship Centre, by the Explorer Group of 1959-1960. During the weekly explorations, the girls decided to arrange a Worship Centre. So - one by one the following suggestions were made - We need:

- 1. A picture of Jesus*
- 2. A Bible*
- 3. A lectern*
- 4. Flowers*

In the fall of 1959, at Mrs. Freeman's suggestion, the girls picked up windfall apples in Mr. Harry Haist's orchard (Marjory's father) and using Mr. Haist's press - made apple juice to sell for the U.C.W. fair in the fall. With the money, the picture was procured at Toronto at a cost of $6.10 and was framed under Rev. H. Penner's supervision and hung, unveiled and dedicated at our Mother and Daughter Banquet in 1960.
