CONDITIONS

1. Fonthill United Church reserves the right to make changes in the event of any unforeseen circumstances.
2. Any facility must be left as it is found. No fixtures or decorations may be moved without prior permission. Nothing is to be removed from the kitchen.
3. No smoking or alcoholic beverages are permitted.
4. Weddings for outside groups: The minister, organist and custodial fees apply. The use of the organ must be approved by the Council and all guest organists must consult with the resident organist as regards to the instrument's use. A maximum of three hours church use each will be allowed for a wedding and rehearsal.
5. Children must be supervised by a responsible adult at all times.
6. Release and Waiver: The renter/tenant agrees to release Fonthill United Church, its Council, Trustees, and its employees from any liability for personal injury, property damage or loss sustained resulting from use of the building or property. The renter/tenant further waives all claims the renter/tenant might have against Fonthill United Church as a result of such personal injury, property damage or loss.
7. Insurance: The renter/tenant is to provide current third-party liability insurance coverage for all days for which church space will be rented or used, with Fonthill United Church added as "additional insured" on the policy. A valid, current certificate of insurance must first be presented to reserve and rent space at the church.
8. Any damage or breakage to equipment used, or to church property, must be reported to a church official immediately. In the event of an official or the secretary not being available, a message must be left on the church's answering machine at (905) 892-6433. Damage will be charged to the user.
